VINTAGE TREASURE-HUNTING HEAVEN!

JUNK BONANZA VINTAGE MARKET AT CANTERBURY PARK SEPTEMBER 20-22

MINNEAPOLIS, MN -- The Junk Bonanza Vintage Market returns to Canterbury Park SEPTEMBER 20-22, showcasing vintage finds, beautiful antiques and artisan-repurposed goods from among more than 150 of the nation's finest handpicked vintage purveyors.

Decorating a new apartment or home? Planning a vintage wedding? Junk Bonanza the source to tap for design inspiration and the goods to make it happen! Vintage finds, beautiful antiques one-of-a-kinds and reimagined treasures including furniture, home and garden decor, jewelry and clothing are artfully staged as a series of boutique booths. Visitors will also find a selection of artisanal foodstuffs.

The Bonanza is known for quality vintage goods -- no reproductions are allowed. Items are 40 years old or older, or upcycled using materials that age. Another event hallmark? It has become a favored gathering for gal pals, friends and families to meet and to shop -- and to enjoy sipping one of Canterbury's famous Bloody Mary cocktails while doing so!

The Bonanza is pleased to present Jamie and Morgan Molitor of Construction2Style.com, the Elk River, MN, husband-and-wife duo who renovate and style homes. During each of their daily sessions they will demystify the process of renovating for resale, share info on trends worth following and explain when it makes sense to splurge on the tile, lighting or stainless soaker sink you can't quit obsessing over!

Among other activities highlights:
